How have you been involved with Lutheran Island Camp?

Please share with us one or more of your favorite memories at Lutheran Island

Camp. My favorite memories involve the many life-time friends I met at camp. Somehow even cleaning windows and bathrooms at the close of camp was enjoyable because of the friends you got to work with along the way.

Tell us how God has worked through camp in your life.

Please feel free to share a personal update with other alumni in the space below.

I met my husband, Chad Peterson aka Gilligan at camp. I am currently a pharmacist at the University of Minnesota, Fairview. My husband and I joke that we have a four legged child, named "Petey." He has been a wonderful, sensitive, loving, and joyful addition to our home.
