How have you been involved with Lutheran Island Camp?

Staff, Volunteer, Camper

Please share with us one or more of your favorite memories at Lutheran Island

Camp. As a camper, when I was 13 years old, I played my first game of Romans and Christians. My friends, Seth and Bob, and I went down the Meditation Trail with the intent of getting on the road to go back to the Bluff. We had no way of knowing, but this took us directly to the "catacomb," which was on one of the abandoned cabin concrete slabs. When I saw the fire in the darkness I went from a jog to a full run. It was the most exhilarating runs of my life. I barely felt my feet touch the ground. Seth described the memory to me in later years as one moment we were jogging together and the next I was gone.
