How have you been involved with Lutheran Island Camp?

Camper

Please share with us one or more of your favorite memories at Lutheran Island

Camp. I went in the early 70s. I was 9 and 11 . It was the first came I ever went to. I remember the skits, the camp song sung in the lunch hall. The closeness of the staff and campers. Spending time there with relatives was an awesome experience.

Tell us how God has worked through camp in your life.

Bible readings, songs, the great outdoors all brought me closer to God in those years.

Please feel free to share a personal update with other alumni in the space below.

I enjoy church, computer, spending time with family, reading, pets and friends. I am married for 18 years . 2 children 15 and 11. We live in Minneapolis.
